Expedition Overview

Begin your ascent to the world's greatest heights (8848.86m / 29,035 ft.) with the 2026 Everest Expedition, brought to you by 14 Peaks Expedition. Your adventure to Everest's summit unfolds with a preparatory climb of Lobuche Peak, equipping you with the vital acclimatization needed for 8000 meters climbing. Our carefully designed journey does more than prepare you for the ascent; it envelops you in the vast beauty of the Himalayas. Your safety is our top priority, and we promise to provide personalized service every step of the way. With Tashi at the in-charge of our expedition, overseeing everything from base camp to the summit, and our expert sherpa team guiding you, you'll be in capable hands. Our impressive safety record will give you peace of mind, ensuring you feel secure and well-looked after throughout your journey.. Whether you choose our VIP treatment or a standard package, your climb will be remarkable. With 14 Peaks Expedition, you're not just climbing Everest, you're going above and beyond.
